

Sustainable Israeli-Palestinian Projects

INVENTORY of Skills and Resources available via SIPP's Board & volunteers

Communication Skills

- Writing and editing in English
- Website development
- Mediation
- Facilitation, program development
- Communication training (using Nonviolent Communication, Compassionate Listening)
- Conflict management training; Conflict analysis & resolution
- Contract/Grant writing editing
- Photography - including editing

Topical, academic knowledge, skills & networks (both USA and international):

- Waste diversion: electronics recycling, composting, curbside recycling, environmental health & safety, and recycling of complex engineered products
- US environmental law and policy
- Geology and Hydrogeology
- Experience in supervising dissertations in a social sciences doctoral program
- International post-war and political violence trauma work (this person serves on On the board of Coalition Against Global Genocide)
- Clinical psychology area, specializing in children, families, and post-trauma:
 - Child and family mental health evaluations and issues
 - Child development and special needs expertise
 - Working in orphanages
 - Disaster mental health support, including after wildfire, wildfire mitigation
 - Working with older adult and elderly issues
 - Autism, ADHD, anxiety and depression expertise
- Reconciliation project work
- Middle East at large, Israeli-Palestinian relations in particular - expertise:
 - Knowledge of history of region, conflict/s, history of peacebuilding endeavors; personal involvement "on the ground"
 - Environment/sustainable development in Israel-Palestine, and its relationship to the conflict (environmental peacebuilding)
 - Work on gender, refugees issues
 - Jews in Arab lands, Jewish-Arab/Muslim relations in the MENA, Sustainable development and interfaith relations in Morocco in particular